

10TH COGNITIVE DAY

CURRENT MILESTONES IN THE MANAGEMENT OF A PATIENT WITH COGNITIVE IMPAIRMENT

13 MAY 2022, LJUBLJANA, SLOVENIA, Domus Medica, Dunajska cesta 162, Ljubljana

PRELIMINARY PROGRAM

8.30-9.00 REGISTRATION

9.00 Welcome and introduction MILICA G. KRAMBERGER, Ljubljana, Slovenia

9.10 Seeing through the brain fog. New insights into functional disorder JEREMY ISAACS, London, United Kingdom

9.35 Psychological underpinnings of functional cognitive disorder; from theoretical basis to clinical practice
SIMON BREZOVAR, Ljubljana, Slovenia

10.00-10.10 DISCUSSION

10.10 Depression in old age - a closer look POLONA RUS PRELOG, Ljubljana, Slovenia

10.35 Cognitive disorders and driving ability ALENKA FRANKO, Ljubljana, Slovenia

11.00-11.10 DISCUSSION

11.10-11.20 COFFEE BREAK

11.20 Dementia in the time of COVID-19: lessons for the future KRISTIAN STEEN FREDERIKSEN, Copenhagen, Denmark

11.45 Stigma in patients with dementia: new aspects in the times of COVID-19 ANA ŠUBIC VALENA, Ljubljana, Slovenia

12.10-12.20 DISCUSSION

12.30-13.30 LUNCH

13.40 Use of biomarkers to improve diagnosis and prognosis of AD WIESJE VAN DER FLIER, Amsterdam, Netherlands

14.05 Update on fluid biomarkers for neurodegenerative diseases HENRIK ZETTERBERG, Gothenburg, Sweden

14.30-14.40 DISCUSSION

14.45 CLOSING REMARKS

Contact: Jaka Bon, University Medical Centre Ljubljana, Department of Neurology, Zaloška cesta 2, 1000 Ljubljana, jaka.bon@kclj.si Scientific & Organizing

Committee: Milica G. Kramberger, Uroš Rot, Zvezdan Pirtošek, Nina Stopar, Jaka Bon, Rok Berlot

Cognitive Day is an annual scientific meeting with international participation organised by Centre for Cognitive Impairments, Department of Neurology, University Medical Centre Ljubljana and Slovenian Neurological Association. The meeting will be held in English. There is no registration fee.

REGISTRATION \(LINK\)